Subject: In re Pork Antitrust Litigation; Subpoena to Compeer Financial, ACA

Sensitivity: Normal

Steve,

Per our discussions and correspondence regarding the third-party subpoena served on Compeer Financial, ACA in In re Pork Antitrust Litigation, Class Plaintiffs and Compeer have agreed on categories of documents and an accompanying document custodian that constitute the parameters of responsive documents. Class Plaintiffs reserve their right to make narrow requests for additional documents that may result from Compeer's production, and Compeer reserves its right to object to such requests. In the event Compeer objects to Class Plaintiffs' requests for additional documents, Class Plaintiffs and Compeer agree to meet and confer in good faith about the requests.

We have reviewed the draft of the motion you intend to file with the Court and we do not intend to oppose the motion. Therefore, we do not believe a hearing is necessary for this unopposed motion.

Best,
Kelly
